HISTORY

AL Ahly For Real Estate Development was established in 1994 as a joint venture between Al Ahly National Bank of Egypt and Hussein Sabbour Consulting. The joining of forces between these two major entities paved the way for the establishment of one of the largest real estate developers in the region; a pioneer in its domain, providing the highest possible standards of living.

With a ground breaking history, and reputable successes across diverse fields, Al Ahly for Real Estate Development engineered projects that ranged from residential developments, retail, mixed use developments to business and medical complexes, as well as social clubs, hotels and touristic resorts.

MOSTAKBAL CITY

Mostakbal City, developed by El Mostakbal for Urban Development, is located in New Cairo, spanning an area over 11,000 acres, equivalent to approximately 45 million square meters.

The project is situated in a prime location on Cairo-Suez Road between KM 46.5 and KM 51 along the East. The city is a central hub, connecting Cairo with new urban communities and major cities located East and Northeast of Cairo, including Madinaty, and the New Administrative Capital.

“IT IS AN EGYPTIAN SHAREHOLDING COMPANY, OWNED BY A CONSORTIUM OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SHAREHOLDERS, EACH ARMED WITH A PROVEN TRACK RECORD IN INVESTING AND REAL ESTATE DEVELOPMENT.”

With a forecasted development plan set to take place over 5 phases, the project currently holds 6,000 acres allocated to residential communities, 2,500 acres designed for roads and green spaces, and 2,500 acres for health, education, commercial, administrative, entertainment and sporting clubs.

El Mostakbal for Urban Development, which was established in 2006, is a pioneering developer of integrated master-planned communities, and is specialized in the area of urban and real estate development. It is an Egyptian Shareholding company, owned by a consortium of Public and Private shareholders, each armed with a proven track record in investing and real estate development. As a company, it utilizes its resources in planning, development, finance and public-private partnerships to create a detailed development plan to facilitate and implement projects.

GENSLER

Gensler is widely recognized as the world's leading collaborative design firm, not just the largest. The ability to work together as an integrated team is part of their core, and is embraced on every level, from their Co-CEOs to their studios and project teams. The focus of Gensler leadership is on serving their clients effectively, based on their needs. Their philosophy behind being a one-firm saves time, cuts costs and delivers innovation. They offer the design industry's deepest bench of expertise, matched with experience gained by working with their clients across the global economy. They bring that broad knowledge to every project and location they work on. Gensler has been recognized as a Fortune 500 firm, as well as being titled the number one architectural firm for 5 consecutive years.

HILL INTERNATIONAL

Hill International provides program and project management, construction management, cost engineering and estimating, quality assurance, inspection, scheduling, risk management and claims avoidance to clients involved in major construction projects worldwide. Hill has participated in over 10,000 project assignments with a total construction value of more than $500 billion. Hill is ranked as the 8th largest construction management firm in the United States, according to Engineering News-Record magazine.

Through their experience and expertise, Hill brings a regional focus, supported by their internationally-recognized industry experts, with the result being a detailed understanding of the conditions, nuances, risks and opportunities likely to influence their projects. Hill's independence offers another benefit to their clients: as the largest "for-fee-only" project management firm in the U.S., they do not provide design or contracting services. This means that they support the clients' projects with no potential conflicts of interest. The combination of these strengths means, from concept to completion, that Hill adds value to the projects they're a part of.
